

MISS CLAFLIN WEDS CRITTENDEN ADAMS

Ceremony Hastened by War Orders—Squadron A Men as Ushers.

OTHER WEDDINGS OF DAY

War orders hastened another wedding yesterday, that of Miss Agnes Cainin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cainin, to Crittenden H. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crittenden Adams. It was celebrated at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Gustavus T. Kirby, 1 East Ninth street, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends who were hurriedly invited by telephone. The Rev. Dr. Percy Stuckey, Rector of the Church of the Ascension, performed the ceremony.

The bridegroom, a member of Squadron A which is expected to leave for duty on the Mexican border, wore his full dress uniform, and several of his comrades, also in uniform, were among the ushers.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a costume of white satin and pearl-embroidered chiffon with a train that was trimmed with roses. She also wore a tiara that was held in place by a band of pearls and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her maid, Miss Mary Stuart Shadlin, and Miss Phyllis McVicker were her only attendants. They wore costumes of pink muslin and large hats of pink silk with bows.

John Adams, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The ushers were James F. Adams and Darwin J. Adams also brothers of the bridegroom; Abner A. Low and Gustavus T. Kirby, acting as informal ushers were Van Scofield Merle-Smith, Charles McAlpin, Fred Arthur Holden, William Seaman, Charles E. Clegg, William C. Hughes all members of Squadron A.

Immediately after the ceremony there was a reception and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Cainin, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shadlin, Mrs. Abner A. Low, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. William Crittenden Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin James.
